DESTINATION

Regency Spirit, Contemporary Glamour

London is a diverse, exciting, and ever-changing city featuring some of the world's best sights, attractions, fashion, arts, and activities. With so much history to discover and new places to experience, it can sometimes be hard to narrow down the long list of reasons to visit. The Lanesborough's team of dedicated "golden keys" concierge, headed by Simon Thomas are on hand to provide you with the very best "in the know" information, to ensure your stay in the World's Greatest City is truly memorable.

HOTEL & LOCATION

Welcome to The Lanesborough Timeless London

Located opposite Hyde Park and Buckingham Palace, just a short walk from Harrods, Harvey Nichols, and London's most exclusive shopping district; Sloane Street, this grand luxury mansion overlooking Hyde Park Corner has undergone an inspired renovation by the famed interior designer Alberto Pinto. The hotel is home to 93 luxurious suites and bedrooms, The Lanesborough Grill serving modern British cuisine overseen by Executive Chef Shay Cooper, the vibrant club like Library Bar and Garden Room with its heated cigar terrace and the magnificent luxurious Lanesborough Club & Spa. The warm but exceptional service in the aesthetic pleasure of a British Heritage building with a museum-level collection of 18th century art.

ACCOMMODATION

Rooms and Suites

Exceptional rooms and suites, all uniquely refurbished with luxurious interiors and responsive technology. Guests also have coveted access to The Lanesborough Club & Spa, enjoying some of London's finest health and fitness facilities. The only hotel in London to offer round-the-clock, dedicated butler service in each room and suite, guests at The Lanesborough are assured their every need is well served. Pet friendly with dog grooming, walking, and sitting services and The Little VIP Club for families to experience our Butler Bootcamp that make young guests feel at home. Our fleet of luxury chauffeur cars are available for drops around London and transfers to airports/Eurostar.

RESTAURANTS & BARS

Social and Convivial

One of London's distinguished dining destinations, The Lanesborough is celebrated as much for its exceptional food and drink as its beautiful rooms and suites. From the vibrant members club atmosphere Library Bar to the intimate Garden Room with its heated cigar terrace, the stately Withdrawing Room a local for Belgravia residents, and the hotel's jewel in the crown, The Lanesborough Grill, reinventing modern British cuisine and contemporary British artwork.

WEDDINGS, MEETINGS AND EVENTS

With seven individually designed private dining rooms representing some of the most elegant event spaces in London, a business meeting, special occasion, glamorous party, wedding or social gathering, The Lanesborough represents sophisticated good times. The majority of the elegant event spaces are bathed in natural daylight, offering impressive views of neighbouring Wellington Arch and Hyde Park. Private dining menu design lead by Executive Chef, Shay Cooper.

CLUB AND SPA

Life Enhancing – London's finest health club

The Lanesborough Club & Spa is one of London's most exclusive private member fitness and health clubs, offering hotel guests and club members access to internationally recognised experts in the fields of fitness, beauty and wellness. It offers bespoke beauty, spa, fitness and nutritional programmes from world-renowned experts, along with 'best in class' equipment in a premium gymnasium and the highest quality of wellbeing classes

LONDON FOR FAMILIES

Funloving Flair

Families are especially welcome at The Lanesborough. Children can be hard to please when they're away from home, but with our Little VIP Club and Butler bootcamp, they are made to feel at home. A welcome gift on arrival, personalised VIP business cards to show at any of our outlets to receive a complimentary soft drink or ice cream, free movies, games, daily treats, popcorn and milkshakes from your butler, or time with our "House Cat" Lilibet, there are lots of reasons why young ones always leave The Lanesborough with a big smile.
